Regulations and Modus Operandi

NEW ZEALAND ACCORDION ASSOCIATION INCORPORATED

OFFICIAL RULES FOR CONTESTS

NAME:

1. These are the rules for the competitions conducted by the New Zealand Accordion Association Incorporated and shall be known as "The New Zealand Accordion Association Incorporated Competition Rules."

DEFINITIONS:

2. Unless the context otherwise requires:

"Accordion" means an acoustic accordion without using amplification or electronic attachment.

"Contest Year" means that period of time starting at 9 June in one year and running to 8 June of the following year.

"New Zealand Accordion Championships and Festival" (henceforth referred to as the "NZAA Competitions") means the competition organised and conducted by the Association for duly qualified competitors being financial members of the New Zealand Accordion Association.

"NZAA Competitions Secretary" means the person appointed by the New Zealand Accordion Association Incorporated Committee.

"Orchestra" means a group of not less than seven performers. At least 60% of the performers, excluding the conductor, must use acoustic accordions.

"Playing time" means actual playing time only. It excludes breaks between movements and pieces.

DESCRIPTION:

3. The NZAA Competitions conducted by the New Zealand Accordion Association Incorporated shall be open only to financial members of the Association, whose names are entered in the National Register.
4. The NZAA Competitions shall be divided into the categories outlined in Rule 5 hereinafter, and shall be further divided into such classes as the Committee decide from time to time, PROVIDED THAT by the first day of December the Committee must publish a full list of the classes available for the following Contest Year.

5. PERFORMANCE CATEGORIES:

South Pacific International Championship

Championship classes which are open to entrants from all nations or territories. Regulated by contestants' actual age as at 8 June of the Contest Year.

All place getters of International Championship classes are presented with certificates.

New Zealand Championship

Championship classes are limited to New Zealand citizen or a New Zealand permanent resident. Regulated by contestants' actual age as at 8 June of the Contest Year. All place getters of N.Z. Championship classes are presented with certificates.

Qualified

Classes open to entrants from any nation or territory. Regulated by contestants' actual age as at 8 June of the Contest Year and/or playing experience.

All place getters of the qualified classes are presented with certificates.

Standard

Classes open to entrants from any nation or territory. Regulated by contestants' actual age as at 8 June of the Contest Year and/or playing experience.

Festival

Open to entrants from any nation or territory. Performances that are not adjudicated.

6. ELIGIBILITY RULES:

Entries are to be made on the official entry form and must reach the NZAA Competitions Secretary or other designated person on or before the required date, accompanied by the appropriate fee.

All entry forms, fees and correspondence to be sent to the NZAA Competitions Secretary or other designated person.

The NZAA Committee reserves the right to refuse any entry, in accordance with the NZAA rules. The Competition Secretary may amalgamate classes at their discretion.

7. Where a section is restricted by age, the date of birth shall be stated on the entry form and verified by the NZAA Competitions Secretary. To enter a Class a contestant shall be of the age stated or under that age on 8 June of the Contest Year.
8. Soloists placed first in any previous N.Z. Championship class may not enter the same or lower age N.Z. Championship class in any subsequent NZAA competitions (except classes SP250, SP251, SP252, SP257, SP258, SP259, SP260) which can be won twice consecutively, before the contestant must stand down for one year before re-competing in the same class. Contestants who have been placed first or second in a NZ Championship Solo Class in the previous year are not eligible to enter a Standard Solo class.

A contestant may not in the same year enter both a NZ Championship Solo Class and a Standard Solo Class.

Contestants may enter Qualified as well as Championship Classes in any given year. Each class may be entered once only in any Contest Year.

Duet or ensemble classes may be entered more than once provided that any subsequent entry is with different partners.

Orchestral classes, where conductors may enter more than one orchestra provided each orchestra is comprised of totally different members.

A contestant may only enter the same piece of music once at each NZAA Competitions.

9. Competitors entering sections requiring Own Choice music, must supply to the Competitions Official on the competitions day; a copy of their own choice music, with all coupler and expression marks, additions and omissions clearly marked. Improvisation classes are excluded.
10. A duet shall consist of two performers and if two accordions then both must play treble and bass.
11. In trio and ensemble classes, bass to be played at leader's discretion by a bass accordion and/or accordion bass. One amplified instrument is permitted.
12. Any question or dispute relating to the interpretation of any rule of the Association shall be decided by the NZAA Committee, whose decision shall be final.
13. The categories and rules for orchestras shall be as set in accordance with Rule 4 provided that orchestras who win the New Zealand Accordion Orchestra Championship Class C62 twice consecutively must stand down for one year before re competing.

CONDUCT OF COMPETITIONS:

14. The NZAA Committee shall have the general power to conduct the administration of competitions.
15. The Accordion Examination Board of New Zealand Incorporated shall recommend to the NZAA committee, persons suitable to act as adjudicators for the National Championship. The Committee, will select adjudicators for the NZAA Competitions from this list. Adjudicators must be accordionists, or accordion teachers of note, or musicians of suitable stature assisted by an accordionist adjudicator as described herein.
16. The order in which the competitors in each section of the Championship classes shall play at the competitions, shall be decided by a draw, by the official appointed for that purpose, before the competition in that section. The order in which the competitors in all other categories shall play shall be decided by the Committee.
17. Contestants must report where directed, prior to the notified reporting time. The committee shall have the right to decide the merits of a case of unavoidable late arrival of any contestant.

18. No competitor or performer may rehearse or practice at the competition venue during the competition weekend. Exceptions to this are contestants in classes SP250, SP251, SP252, SP257, SP258, SP259, SP260 and festival items who are permitted 15-20 minutes before their performance in an area designated by the NZAA Committee.
19. Entrants in any class failing to take part in the contest or failing to comply with the rules shall be automatically disqualified, and the contestant's entry fee forfeited.
20. For most classes timing is the responsibility of the MC. It is their responsibility to stop a performance if the contestant excessively exceeds the prescribed playing time limit. Some International Championship and New Zealand Championship classes are subject to time penalties. Refer to the Class Schedule section for these exceptions.
21. The adjudicators' decision in all matters relating to judging will be final.
22. The names of the winning competitors will be announced at the end of each session.
23. Audio and video recorders will be prohibited from the premises where contests are held under the auspices of the New Zealand Accordion Association Incorporated, except with the express permission of the Committee.
24. Only music stands supplied by the New Zealand Accordion Association Incorporated are to be used in the solo and duet sections.
25. Amplification and other electronic attachments are permitted only as specified in accordance with Rule 4.
26. Protests connected with the contests must be made in writing, accompanied by such fee as is determined by the NZAA Committee, to a member of the New Zealand Accordion Association Incorporated Committee within one hour of the results being given. The fee is forfeited should the protest not be upheld by the Committee, or a protest Committee appointed for the purpose, whose decision is final.

JUDGING:

27. Music shall be played and judged as written, except in those classes where the provision of music for the adjudicators is not a requirement.
28. A minimum tempo marking may be put on test music.
29. Adjudicators will be required to allot marks, and may incorporate constructive comments.
30. The adjudicators are not obligated to award first placing in any class, if, in their opinion, first place is not warranted.

GENERAL:

31. All accordion cases, stands and miscellaneous equipment must be marked with the competitor's and/or owner's names.
32. There shall be no restriction as to the make of accordion used by the competitors.

33. Trophies offered for competition annually may be held until the next contest. It is the responsibility of the holder to ensure the return of trophies 21 days before that date. Holders of trophies may arrange at their own cost for their name and the year of their holding to be engraved on the trophy. Lost or damaged trophies will incur a replacement cost.
34. A music selection committee of at least two persons, who shall be accordion players or teachers of note, shall be appointed annually by the New Zealand Accordion Association Committee, and shall determine the test music to be played at any competition.
35. Submission of an entry form shall be deemed as full and complete acceptance and understanding of these competition rules.
36. These competition rules shall only be altered, added to or rescinded by resolution at the annual general meeting or at any special meeting called for the purpose, provided that notice of any such alterations, addition or rescission shall have been circulated to members at least twenty-one (21) days prior to such meeting. Any proposed alteration, addition, or rescission of the rules may be amended at the meeting. A two-thirds majority of those present and entitled to vote shall be necessary to carry the motion.
37. These rules and regulations known as the New Zealand Accordion Association Incorporated Competition Rules, shall be placed as an appendix to the Constitution and be part of that document.

ADJUDICATING

1. The names of the adjudicators will be printed in the Official Programme and they include New Zealand accordianists, plus invited overseas guests.
2. Allocation of Adjudicators to classes is at the discretion of the Adjudicators Co-ordinator, with due regard paid to the type of class, experience, style, other instrument(s), vocals, etc. With particular note given that:
Adjudicators will be asked if there may be some reason why they are ineligible to adjudicate any of the competitors. As per Coupe Mondiale practice, reasons may include, but are not limited to:
 - teacher/student relationship within the previous two years,
 - close personal or professional relationship,
 - Family Members
3. All classes, including all South Pacific and New Zealand Championship classes, are sight-judged.
4. Two sets of judges operate at the same time to alternate classes. This acts as a time saving measure to reduce the period between each competitor and also to increase the interest for the audience who will not have to listen to several performances in a row of the same piece.

Assessment Criteria

1. ASSESSMENT CRITERIA:
Classes C6/SP250, C9/SP251, C11/SP257, C12/SP259, C15/SP258, C16/SP252, C53/SP260 and will all be assessed as follows:

Performance	80 marks
Program	10 marks
Stagecraft / Presentation	10 marks

All other classes are to be assessed as follows:
Performance, Program (where applicable) and Stagecraft / Presentation 100 marks

2. DEFINITIONS:
“Performance” refers to the overall musicianship of the performance, including technical proficiency and performance by memory.

“Program” refers to the degree of difficulty of the selected pieces where applicable consisting of different styles, character and composers.

“Stagecraft / Presentation” means the competitors ability to present himself/herself to an audience as an artist. It includes but is not limited to:
 - Introduction
 - Dress
 - Audience Interaction

Marking

1. The adjudicators are required to observe a consistent standard of adjudication. Each performance will be marked utilizing the following guidelines:

90 to 100	Excellent
80 to 90	Very Good
70 to 80	Good
60 to 70	Fair
50 to 60	Very poor

2. Awarding of placing:
 - a. For a placing below an equal placing the next placing is not awarded, e.g. if a first equal placing is awarded then 2nd place is not awarded etc.
 - b. As stated in Rule 30: “The adjudicators may award other than first place, if, in their opinion, first place is not warranted”.

Calculation of Results

1. The calculation of the results from the adjudicator's mark sheets shall be carried out at the Results Calculation Table. If more than one adjudicator, then the marks are to be averaged.
2. The Results Calculation Table personnel shall then calculate and apply any time penalty marks for any failure to follow the maximum or minimum playing time for specified classes.

The Classes for which time penalties may be applied are: C6/SP250, C9/SP251, C11/SP257, C12/SP259, C15/SP258, C16/SP252, C53/SP260

Time penalties are to be calculated as follows:

- a. Timing will be the responsibility of a timekeeper appointed independently of the adjudicators.
- b. Penalty points will be calculated as per the Coupe Mondiale rules.
